

xPERT eCampus 4.1 Delivers New Content Management, Expert Locator Features

Falls Church, VA, (October 2005). Q2Learning, LLC, the leading provider of enterprise software for collaborative learning and knowledge management, announces the availability of xPERT eCampus 4.1, the latest enhancement to its award-winning blended learning platform.

The xPERT eCampus 4.1 builds on the rapid development capabilities of 4.0 and adds features that enable even greater collaboration and knowledge sharing.

“xPERT eCampus 4.1 provides organizations with robust and exciting ways to support collaboration, communication and learning,” said Dr. Bill Bruck, general manager of Q2Learning. “Participants can access information about content, discussions and colleagues, while managers can quickly gauge the level of participation and interest in specific topics and communities as a whole.”

xPERT eCampus 4.1 new features:

- Resource library with additional permissions, effective and expiring content dates and full-text search
- xPERT locator features including customizable participant directory, participant business card, and searchable profiles
- Enhanced usage reports to enable tracking of community health
- eCommerce integration and auto-registration
- Enhanced ability to launch external applications such as calendars, wikis and polls
